DMUN Foundation Sends 3 Representatives to the 2024 Ad Hoc Committee to Draft a Terms of Reference to the United Nations Framework Convention on International Tax Cooperation

New York, NY – 10 August 2024 – Three official representatives of the DMUN Foundation—Executive Director Mr. Jaewon Choi, Trustee Mr. Avi Contractor, and Global Youth Delegate Mr. Matthew Kartavov—are participating in the Second Session of the Ad Hoc Committee to Draft Terms of Reference for a United Nations Framework Convention on International Tax Cooperation, taking place at United Nations Headquarters in New York from 29 July to 16 August 2024.

Building on its commitment to inclusive global governance, the DMUN delegation will:

Deliver Plenary Interventions: Advocate for the explicit inclusion of youth and developing-country perspectives in the Convention’s governance and dispute-resolution mechanisms.

Propose SDG-Aligned Commitments: Recommend anchoring the Convention’s objectives in the Sustainable Development Goals to secure predictable financing for development, climate action, and social welfare.

“A fair international tax framework is vital for sustainable development and equity,” said Mr. Choi. “We’re proud to ensure that youth voices and the priorities of emerging economies are heard at the heart of these negotiations.”

The Committee aims to finalize and adopt the Terms of Reference by vote on 16 August 2024, setting the stage for the negotiation of a binding Convention that could reshape global tax cooperation and bolster revenue mobilization for all nations.
